Marty Coughlin

"Mert"

A drink to a swell friend and Buddy. Remember all our fun together and all our girl friends. We sure had some pretty rough times. How we ever got home is beyond me. Don't forget all the fun which we plan on having this summer. Remember all the we went Hunting + Shooting. Sure is going to seem funny not coming to school next year. But as long as we can be together during the evening it will be O.K. & better quite & leave room for all your women in your love life.

Best of Luck.

DEDICATION

The Senior Class of 1956 dedicate the Magenta to their classmate, Allen Jacobson, who was killed in an auto accident on the way home from school when he was a freshman on January 28, 1953.

Unscathed, still young and fresh in the sunrise of life, he went to meet his Lord, whose picture was found in his pocket. He was a loyal member of the Confirmation Class of the Winchester Lutheran Church and an active member of the Luther League.

He was a member of the "B" basketball squad on which he had a regular berth. His ready smile and sunny disposition were his finest qualities.

Many times during the past three years the Seniors have thought of him—and remembered.

Well might he have said:

When my free spirit has escaped its thrall,
And my still body answers not your call,
Withhold your tears—be only glad with me
That there is peace, and sweet tranquility;
And thus rejoicing—some appointed day . . .
Take me to waving fields where wind-harps play
Among the grass a gentle lullaby
And wild flowers smile back to a smiling sky;
Then go your way unsorrowing—leave me where Great trees lift worshipful mute arms in prayer
And rugged hills upraise their crests afar
In age-old greeting to the first dim star

Thus I rejoin my playmates, loved so long,
Out in the fields of God—the linnet's song
The poppy's gleam, the night-wind's kiss, the breath
Of Nature, sing: "Lo, there is no death!"

Smile and be glad—the world has need of these;
Life is not helped by dirges, but by glees;
Call not to those who sail uncharted seas.

Nothing has happened—Good only can befall
Those who have answered to their Pilot's call,
A ship outbound from harbor—That is all.

—J. W. R.

Ever looking foreward!
Many times wishing
They were fishing.
Finely balanced
Between work and play
They reach their goal,
Angling among the stars
To become fishers of men,
The theme of the Magenta.

Board of Directors

Perhaps in the future you may find time to remove this Magenta from the library shelf, blow away the dust particles and page through it again. Undoubtedly fond memories and a feeling of nostalgia for past events of high school days will again return.

It is our hope that your stay at Winneconne Community High School has afforded you many opportunities to develop yourself as a good citizen. And of course we know that often you have found pleasant experiences and "lighter" moments along the way.

We trust that you have acquired a sense of pride in your school and its accomplishments as well as a feeling of appreciation to your parents and teachers for their efforts in your behalf.

On behalf of the faculty, I wish to extend sincere wishes for your continued success and happiness.

SS EDNA PALECEK, Assistant Principal

MR. JOHN F. McKENNA, District Superintendent

There are many decoys in life which may confuse and destroy the unwary.

Just as a surgeon may be lured by a carved effigy, so may we be caught in a net of false values and unworthy goals.

We have all heard of the big one—"seen, but never caught"—So it is with education; it teaches us to avoid such nets.

It is our hope that you, the students of Winneconne High School, with the knowledges and skills acquired here, will always be the "big one that got away."

School is serious business with Mr. McKenna.

Miss Edna Palecek advises Lyle Mueller abvout some grave problems.

Hi Marty.

Remember the nights you came out with Jim. Especially the night you came out in the jeep when it was so cold. And then the night when you took Carolyn home and all the top tunes came on and everyone was singing. Speaking of singing, remember the song Jerry and you were singing when we left Carolyn + Carol off. And then when somebody stopped and gave you some refreshments. You know you should have gotten a zero that one day for shooting spit balls at Cleo or was it the neck. Don't forget that one night after a basketball game when we were waiting for you and found God in the ditch. Also remember the night we went to Oshkosh from Eastward. never did decide which place to go into, did we? Be good to all the girls this summer including the one you say you don't like, but we all know. Say Jim never found out where that dollar came from, did he? Don't work too hard. I probably won't see you all at until school next year so take it easy. Babe.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS

During the first weeks of school, the freshmen faced the difficulties that few will ever forget . . . the traditional Freshman Initiation executed by the seniors in due style was the most exciting single event of the year. According to tradition, they were dressed up in comical Indian costumes with papooses on their backs. Their faces were distorted by nylon hose pulled over their heads in a weird manner. All day long, they performed many obnoxious tasks at frequent requests by the mighty- officious seniors. The freshmen were convinced that some of the seniors really took advantage of the situation.

Bryce Schmude took an active part in football representing the freshman class. Jim Mathison, Bryce Schmude, and Orville Luebke represented the freshman class in basketball.

For homecoming festivities, the freshmen representatives were Bryce Schmude and Lester Angell who chose Lona Anderson and Marjorie Baugrud to attend as their partners.

Bonnie Larson and Lona Anderson represented the freshmen by being a part of the "B" squad cheering section.

The freshmen class officers were: President, Bryce Schmude; Vice-President, Judy Radloff; and Secretary and Treasurer; Orville Luebke. Representatives for the Student Council were: Mary Lammemann, Mary Alice Becker, Don Lipske, and Bob Handt. Marge Baugrud and Mary Becker were on the Magenta staff and Judy Radloff was on the Wolf Call staff. Mr. J. Perry and Mr. J. Diamond were class advisors.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

There are 66 students in the sophomore class. Sophomores are represented in various activities in school.

The representatives to student council were: Carl Hendry, Thomas Keough, Joanne Gauerke, and Carol Mueller.

The sophomores who played in the band were: Joanne Gauerke, Peggy Wentzel, Gred Krueger, Jerry Reetz, Janice Landwehr, Donna Johnson, Connie Wiesner, Carl Hendry, Richard Larsen, and Thomas Ehlke.

John Buser, Charles Radtke, Chuck Bradley, Norman Moss, Robert Lipske, Thomas Ehlke, Carl Hendry, Jerry Reeta, Elroy Angell, Robert Holtz, Malcolm Davis, Larry Armstrong, and Gareth Christian belong to the "W" Club.

The football team, which took first in the conference, had sophomores playing on it. Thomas Ehlke, John Buser, Elroy Angell, Malcolm Davis, Gareth Christian, Robert Holtz, and Chuck Radke earned letters in football and played with the varsity.

The sophomores of the "B" football team were: Doug Jensen, Dick Hitchcock, Joe Herbst, John Reinert, Fred Krueger, Fred Loker, Chuck Bradley, Jim Dellman, Ulrich Boss, Tom Keough, and Bob Krueger.

Moving to basketball, Thomas Ehlke, John Buser, Chuck Radtke, and Jerry Reetz played on both "A" and "B" teams.

Chuck Bradley, Elroy Angel, Chuck Schueler, Larry Armstrong, John Reinert, and Carl Hendry played on the "B" team.

Bob Lipske earned a letter in baseball as he pitched for the team.

During the track season, Chuck Bradley, Thomas Ehlke, Larry Armstrong, and Gareth Christian all earned letters in track.

Adele Christianson was the only sophomore to make the cheerleading squad.

During the middle of the school year, we got a new student in the sophomore class. He is Ken Shields.

There are three sophomores on the Magenta Staff this year. They are Carolyn Brazee, David Roland, and Chuck Schueler.

Thomas Ehlke received an "A" rating at the state meet in forensics last year.

The sophomore class chose John Buser and Chuck Radtke as representatives of the class for the homecoming court.

Mary Brooks and Janice Landsehr were selected to serve on the court for the Charity Ball.

At homecoming time, the sophomore boys float took first place in beauty.

On the first day of school the class officers were elected. They were: Peggy Wentzel, President; Chuck Schueler, Vice-President, Robert Holtz, Secretary; and Jerry Reetz, Treasurer.

The sophomore class advisors are Mrs. Eid and Miss Dottke.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

"The Case of the Missing Heirs" was a mystery play which was presented in March by the junior class. The audience found itself about to scream—only to break into a hearty laugh. Ten people had gathered in the wind-swept, gloomy Castle Wentz, to hear the reading of the will of August Wenz. Those in the play cast were: Eleanor Riley, Judy Wheaton, Sharon Schmelling, Margaret Korn, Guy VanAston, Lyle Mueller, Rodney Williams, Mary Ellen Disch, Bruce LaMarche, and Roland Hansen.

In January they began work on their prom. The theme chosen was "Sweethearts on Parade." The king was chosen in March. The committee decided upon Eddie Simms for their orchestra.

A Leap Year Dance, a money-promotion dance for the prom, was given after a basketball game on January 27. They all enjoyed the music of Chuck Reehl.

During the year, the junior class sponsored several dances, one of which was the "Halloween Hop." The "Halloween Hop" was held on October 28, and was very successful. The gym was decorated quite cleverly and the music was furnished by Chuck Reehl. Pumpkins were scattered over the floor along with corn shocks.

The class was also asked to plan their part of the homecoming festivities. Bill Parsons and Glenn Michels were elected by the class as members of the homecoming court.

Student Council representatives were chosen also. Georgia Reese and Eleanor Riley were picked to represent the girls, and Ronnie Day and Melvin Mathison were elected for the boys.

On September 12, 1955, the junior class of '55-'56, held its first meeting. The election of officers was the first item on the agenda. Nancy Schmidt, who took temporary charge of the meeting, was elected president. The offices of vice-president, secretary, and treasurer were filled by Barbara Olson, Judy Grunwald, and David Peterson, respectively.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

When the class of '56 started high school, they were as green as any freshmen ever were. When that dreaded initiation day arrived, they came trembling into school, not daring to cross the paths of the mighty seniors. It was hard to tell who looked more ridiculous—the girls with their gunny sacks and the pigtails held with clothes-pins, or the boys with their girdles and nylons, and the boards they wore on their feet instead of shoes. In the halls one could hear a steady din, as the lowly freshmen bowed and sang the "Chattanooga Shoeshine Boy" to the Mighty Seniors.

Then, as if the day's activities were not enough, they had to return at night for the rest of the initiation. Here he activities ranged from playing catch with liver to wandering hrough the cemetery in search of the date of birth of Joe Blow.

They gave a freshmen return party for the seniors in the spring.

The freshmen members of the Homecoming Court were Keith Halder and Karen Friedrich, and Dave McNamee and Beverly Broehm.

The freshmen put on a one-act play entitled "Drums in the Night." It was a mystery, starring Beverly Broehm, Dave McNamee, Marjorie Hofberger, Bill Hewitt, Pat Scott, and Betty Jo Bradley.

It seemed as though their sophomore year would never come. But one crisp fall day, they entered the school with a new outlook. They were no longer the babies of the school. They were sophomores now, and an air of sophistication and maturity fell over the whole class.

The officers for the year were elected on the first day of school. Those chosen were: Ted Wicinsky, President; Keith Halder, Vice-President; Mildred Larson, Secretary; and Bruce Armstrong, Treasurer.

Members of the Homecoming Court were Ted Wicinsky and Mildred Larson, and Bruce Armstrong and Nancy Thiel.

The junior year was really a big year as far as events were concerned. Early in the fall, a meeting was held with Mr. Lynum from Josten's to decide which class rings they wanted. After a close vote, they finally reached a decision, and as it turned out, everyone was satisfied.

The class picked Merle Christian and Franklin Bork to be on the Homecoming Court.

Work for the prom was begun almost immediately. Bill Hewitt and Zola Larson were chosen as King and Queen, and they picked the members of their court. When the great day finally arrived, many of them had worked so hard that they were all tuckered out by evening. But it was worth all the hard work, for every one thought the prom was a huge success.

The Junior-Senior Banquet was attended by most of the juniors. The class officers, Bruce Armstrong, Bill Hewitt, Jeanette Gaureke, and Beverly Broehm, worked with the Senior Class officers to plan the banquet.

At the time of graduation, the junior girls formed an honor buard for the graduating seniors. It was hard for them to believe that they had become seniors. The first three years had gone by like a flash.

School had hardly started when they had to begin planning for initiation. They had been waiting for revenge for three years, and they showed no mercy on the poor freshmen. The little freshies, dressed like Indians, were made to bow, shine shoes, and do war-dances around the seniors.

The class play, "Father Knows Best," was given, with Lyle Mueller in the role of the father. Although it seemed no one knew their parts the week before the play, and even though no one came in on time during the dress rehearsal, they all came through in fine style when the play was given.

The time came for the class pictures to be taken; the graduation announcements and cards were ordered, and almost before they knew it, the first semester was over.

The Junior-Senior Banquet gave them their last opportunity for a large social gathering with their classmates.

Then, before they knew what was happening, it was graduation day.

"Come Here Son"

EFT TO RIGHT: B. Broehm, B. Bradley, G. Remmel, D. Ehlke, G. Scovel, L. Mueller, J. Gauerke.

The Senior Class selected a play entitled "Father Knows Best", based on the radio and television show of the same name. It featured Lyle Mueller in the title role of father. Supporting him were Jeanette Gauerke as the mother; Beverly Broehm as the older daughter, Betty; Nancy Thiel as the younger daughter, Kathy; Franklin Bork as Bud, the son; and Gaylord Remmel, Betty's boyfriend.

Also in the cast were Mildred Larson, Karen Friedrich, Pat Scott, Harold Johnson, Gary Scovel, Richard Ehlke, Willard Wine, Virginia Pufahl, Zola Larson, Marjorie Hofberger, and Betty Jo Bradley.

Seniors who were not members of the cast, but who played important parts in the success of the play were Violet Schonscheck, Violette Peterson, and Arlene Peterson for make-up. Robert Brooks, Milton Peterson, and Dan Reetz were the stage crew. Donald Wisnefske and Ruth Mueller were the prompters.

The play was directed by Miss Joanne Wysocki, with Loretta Kinsler as the assistant director.

"We're Busy"

"I crown you Zola, my queen, of the 1955 Prom."

STARDUST

The brightly shining stars illuminated the entrance. There was a hush of expectation, as all eyes were turned toward the archway. Then, to the beautiful tune of "Stardust", the King and Queen, Bill Hewitt and Zola Larson, entered a paradise of stars and glitter, and the pink cloud to their thrones.

The King was crowned by Bruce Armstrong, President of the Junior Class. Bill crowned Zola as his queen.

Zola wore a floor-length white net dress. Large net flowers made up the outer skirt with a pink cumberband. She chose a white necklace and earrings for her accessories.

Attending the royal pair were Dick Ehlke and Mary Ellen Disch, Lyle Mueller and Suzan Bruss, Karen Friedrich and Gaylord Remmel, Dave McNamee and Judy Grunwald, June Kratz and Lee Johnson, Nancy Thiel and Bruce Armstrong, Mildred Larson and Harold Johnson, and Pat Scott and Gary Scovel. The crowns were carried in by the starlettes, Barbara Mueller and Paul Ehlke.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Dirigo Chapter of the National Honor Society, in its second year at Winneconne, had six regular members and two probationary members at the end of the first semester.

Membership in the National Honor Society is based on character, leadership, scholarship, and service in extra-curricular activities.

A candidate who has a 2.75 average, and possesses the three other essential qualites automatcally becomes a member.

An average of 2.75 is required for membership, based on 2 points for a 'B," 3 points for an "A," taken from the two previous semesters work.

While only juniors and seniors may become active members, sophomores may become probationary members at the end of the first semester, provided that they meet all the requirements that active members must meet. If their work continues to meet these standards, they may become active members at the end of their sophomore year. Two sophomores, Joanne Gauerke and Peggy Wentzel, were probationary members this year.

Mrs. B. Tetzlaff and Miss Edna Palecek were the advisers for the National Honor Society.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council's main purpose is to discuss and improve all of the student's problems and ideas with emphasis on cooperation with administration. Any student may take them to their student representative and he in turn takes up the matter wih the Council. The representatives for the freshmen were: Mary Alice Becker, Donald Lipske, Mary Lammeman, Bob Hondt. Sophomores were: Carol Mueller, Joanne Gauerke, Tom Keough, and Carl Hendry. The juniors were: Georgia Reese, Eleanor Riley, Ronald Day, and Melvin Mathison. The seniors were: Virginia Pufhal, Ruth Mueller, Gaylord Remmel, and David McNamee.

Their main project was planning the homecoming weekend. On Friday night the huge bonfire, parade and dance were their responsibility. On Friday afternoon, school was dismissed to allow the different classes and organizations to decorate their floats. They were then shown to the public on Friday night before the bonfire and dance. It all turned out very nice. Saturday afternoon, during the game, members of the Student Council gave up their time and decorated the gym. Their theme was "Moments to Remember." It was carried out very effectively throughout the gym. In the center of the gym was a goal post with football pictures around it. The school's colors of red and white were predominant. The king chosen was James Kuhr. He chose Karen Friedrich as his queen.

A new idea which was thought of this year, and which will probably be an annual affair, was a charity ball for the March of Dimes. To collect more money, a queen was chosen by money votes. The queen for this year was Beverly Broehm. She chose Ted Wicinsky for her king.

The officers for this year were: Loretta Kinsler, President; David McName, Vice-President; Virginia Pufhal, Secretary, Ruth Mueller, Treasurer.

The group has been very successful and efficient under the supervision of Mr. John Eid.

MAGENTA STAFF

The Magenta Staff, under the supervision of Mrs. B. Tetzlaff, started their job on the yearbook in September.

The editor, Beverly Broehm, and co-editor, Pat Scott, appointed the staff members to fill in the important posts. They decided upon Jeanette Gauerke as Literary Editor; Dick Ehlke, Business Manager; Zola Larson, Assistant Business Manager; Lyle Mueller, Photographer; and Bill Hewitt, Sports Editor. Those representing the other classes were juniors—Margaret Korn, Nancy Schmidt, and Joyce Brommelmeier; sophomore—Charles Schueler and David Roland; and freshmen—Marjorie Baugrud and Mary Alice Becker.

The theme of fishing was planned for this book because of all of the local interest around Winneconne center in angling.

Advertising really turned out with a bang! It is a new item to help the cost of the annual. Businesses solicited were from the Winneconne area, the Twin Cities, and Oshkosh. Dick Ehlke, Beverly Broehm, Marjorie Baugrud, Zola Larson, Leon Kellogg, Melvin Hoger, and Danny Retz were the salesmen for the advertising. They have done a marvelous job.

The Larson Studio came in October to take all class and informal pictures. After the pictures came back, they had a big job ahead of them to paste everything up and the job was begun.

The first deadline to be made was February 17. When all type-written material was in. The days before this were hectic: but it was a lot of fun.

Wolf Call

In sports, the reporters found news very exciting all year. Winning the championship for football and basketball led to many interesting news articles.

News was plentiful through the year from the various clubs and organizations in school. The Wolf Call Staff wrote articles each time a club had an interesting meeting or undertaken a new project.

Homecoming, Prom, Leap-Year Dance, Charity Ball, and many other dances were all reported by the staff to the students.

The Wolf Call Staff has been busy all this year covering social events at Winneconne High. Those on the staff are: Editor, Nancy Thiel; Assistant Editor, Betty Jo Bradley; Reporters, Marjorie Hofberger, Beverly Broehm, Pat Scott, Charles Schueler, Joanne Gauerke, Beverly Helke, and Marjorie Popke. Typing is done by the office training class under the guidance of Mrs. Irma Griedl, Wolf Call Adviser

The staff gathers all important material on the magazine campaign, forensics, and other projects sponsored by the school. It also carried "Bits of Interest" about faculty members and students.

So all through the year, reporters, adviser, and editors worked to put out news and views of the school into print once a week.

F.T.A.

The Serve Our Schools Future Teachers Club was organized in 1952 under the leadership of Miss Palecek. During the four years, the members have been active in helping the grade school teachers with their daily work. Occasionally they are asked to help high school teachers.

The planning and entertaining of the state FTA convention, held in October, fell upon their shoulders. The work of the convention was done by separate committees. Those on the planning committee were: Beverly Broehm, Loretta Kinsler, Jeanette Gauerke, Zola Larson, Marlyn Weisner, Nancy Thiel, Evelyn Kinsler, Mary Ellen Disch, and Rosalie Mathison.

Other committees were housing, Beverly Broehm, chairman; Jeanette Gaurke and Ruth Mueller, registration; welcome, Virginia Pufahl; refreshments, Marjorie Hofberger; and table decorations, Lois Pride.

F. T. A.

The convention started on Friday afternoon with registration. After registration the president of the Winneconne Club, Beverly Broehm, welcomed the group.

The speakers for the afternoon were: Mr. Peter Owsley, who talked about special education; Miss Mary Willits, elementary education; and Dr. R. E. Gotham, secondary education. The convention then adjourned to separate groups to discuss the phases of the speeches.

Supper was served in St. Mary's Parish Hall. The early part of the evening was spent seeing films following the lines of the afternoon speakers. The remainder of the evening was spent square dancing under the direction of Mr. C. Wine.

The convention delegates then went to homes of the members and people in the community to sleep. This helped to make many new friends.

On Saturday the business meeting took most of the morning. The state officers presided at the meeting, two of these being from Winneconne. They were: Beverly Broehm, State Historian; and Loretta Kinsler, State Secretary.

New officers were elected during the meeting. Marlyn Weisner was elected State Historian.

After the meeting the new officers were installed with the ex-officers presiding.

A banquet in the school cafeteria brought the convention to a happy ending.

The officers for this year are: Beverly Broehm, President; Ruth Mueller, Vice-President; Jeanette Gauerke, Treasurer; and Virginia Pufhal, Historian. The club organizer and adviser is Miss Edna Palecek.

The officers for the Girls' Athletic Association are: Bev Boree, President; Eleanor Riley, Vice-President; Mary Ellen Disch, Secretary; and Carolyn Brazee, Treasurer. This group is advised by Miss Charlotte Dottke.

The GAA decorated a float for the homecoming parade with the slogan "Even Davy Crockett Couldn't Beat Off the Wolves." The float showed Davy Crockett, representing Denmark, trying to keep away the wolves, representing Winneconne.

The girls participate in volleyball and basketball tournaments in which the girls are divided into four teams playing in double elimination tournaments; ice skatng; and tumbling. In the spring, the activities include soccer, baseball, and speed-ball.

An ice-skating party was held during the winter at the Winneconne rink. After the party, refreshments were ing in double elimination tournaments; ice skating; and records were borrowed and dancing was our main subject.

Plans are being made that in the future years, girls will be able to earn letters by participating in various physical activities.

FHA's program of self-improvement and increasing community responsibility is carried on by the girls through their individual degree work. It is the aim of the club to give a well-rounded program of personality development and mental and spiritual growth to each girl whose basic interest is Home Economics.

The FHA held its initiation on December 5, in the school cafeteria with all freshmen candidates eligible for membership. As the freshmen came forward in pairs, the officers pinned red roses on them as a symbol of membership. Marjorie Hofberger explained the purposes of FHA. After the meeting, punch and cookies were served by the junior home economics class.

FHA Week was observed November 5-7. Posture Day was observed at the beginning of the week. Everyone was encouraged to walk, stand, and sit correctly. Prizes were given to the boy and girl with the outstanding posture. Darlene Dorow and Ronald Day were elected queen and king of Posture Day.

Wednesday was Friendly Day. Everyone was encouraged to be a little more friendly and cheerful on that day.

F. F. A.

The primary aim of the Future Farmers of America is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. The specific purposes for which this organization was formed was to develop competent, aggressive, rural, and agricultural leadership. To create and nurture a love of country life in the young people. To provide and encourage the development of organized rural recreational activities. In order to create more interest in the intelligent choice of farming occupations. Members are encouraged to develop individual farming programs and establishments, and encourage members to improve the farm home and its surroundings. While participating in worthy undertakings for the improvement of agriculture, members develop character, and train for useful citizenship and patriotism.

Cooperative efforts are encouraged in the practice of thrift as well as improvement in scholarship.

The FFA had a banquet in the spring which has become an annual event to honor the parents.

FFA basketball tournament was held in Berlin in February.

Officers for 1955-56 were: Keith Halder, President; Leon Kellogg, Vice-President; Franklin Bork, Treasurer; Gaylord Remmel, Secretary; Elroy Angell, Reporter; and James Kuhr, Sentinel. Their advisor was Mr. R. Willis DiVall.

Library Club

The Library Club has kept the books in shape in the library. They had new bulletin boards every month. Parties were planned throughout the year.

The officers for this year were—Loretta Kinsler, President; Jeanette Gauerke, Vice-President; Evelyn Kinsler, Secretary; Karen Friedrich, Reporter.

The club was under the advisorship of Mrs. John Eid, Librarian.

FORENSICS

Early spring found a large number of students enrolled in the forensic program. As soon as semester tests were over, they began working toward the first contest, which was held February 28. Two winners from each department went on to the triangular forensic meet. This contest between Bear Creek, Hortonville, and Winneconne, was held here on March 6. Winners from this contest participated in the Little Nine contest at Hilbert on March 13.

Those taking humorous declamations were Margie Popke and Carol Kolodzik. Virginia Pufahl took extemporaneous reading. Miss Joanne Wysocki coached these two groups.

Mr. James Diamond coached those taking non-original orations, who were: Gary Scovel, Adele Christianson, Margaret Korn, Mary Becker, and Carl Hendry.

David Morgan, Ronnie Day, Chuck Schueler, and Thomas Ehlke decided to take extemporaneous; and those taking four-minute speeches were Marlyn Wiesner and Larry O'Connell. Jeanette Gauerke, Lois Pride, and Alois Kinateder participated in the original oratory events. Mrs. B. Tetzlaff was the coach for these three groups.

A new category, caled interpretative reading, was started this year. Those who took this new event were Beverly Broehm, Joanne Gauerke, and Evelyn Kinsler. They were coached by Mrs. J. Eid.

Students taking serious declamations were: Judy Grunwald, Eleanor Riley, Peggy Wentzel, Janice Landwehr, and Mary Lammeman. They were coached by Mrs. Gladys Wine.

Pep Band

The Pep Band furnishes musical entertainment during the halves at major athletic events, and between the "A" and "B" games. It is made up entirely of members of the regular band. The members of the Pep Band are not first chair musicians in regular band. Many of the band members who play first chair music also play basketball or are cheerleaders, so the second and third chair players take over.

Although the Pep Band is handicapped by being allotted no practice time, their repertoire includes, "The Helena Polka," "Time-Out Boogie," "Washington and Lee Swing," as well as quite a number of marches.

The members of the Pep Band enjoy entertaining and arousing school spirit.

They do a commendable job under the direction of Mr. Jack Perry, nom de plume, "Mendez," who lends his assistance in the cornet section.

The spectators encourage the Pep Band by applause, and the cheerleaders give a locomotive in appreciation of their efforts.

The band began the year with 57 enthusiastic members, under the direction of Mr. Jack Perry. They began to plan their schedule for the year with their first public appearance at the Homecoming parade. According to custom, the band led the parade across town and back to the bonfire.

After hard work and long hours of practice, under the capable guidance of Mr. Perry, the band presented its annual Winter Concert on December 18. Included in the program were: "RMB March," "Secnes from the Sierras," "Christmas Suite," "Blue Tango," "If Thou Be Near," "Disc Jockey," and "Show Boy March." The applause of the crowd brought them back for an encore, and, in the famous last words of Mr. Perry, "It just so happens that we have an extra number ready."

During the concert, Jim Soley, president of the band, presented a gift to Mr. Perry. It was given in behalf of the band, to show their appreciation for all the work he had done.

Spring was a busy time for the band, with the Spring Concert, music festivals, and the solo and ensemble contests.

A new event was introduced at the music festivals this year. This was a sight-reading contest. The band was given music which they had never seen before, and the judge directed this number. In addition to this number, the band played three other numbers. The warm-up march was "Storm King." "Dance of the Hours" was the required number, and "The Symphony Number 5 in E Minor" was the selected number.

The Spring Concert featured all the three songs used at the contests. In addition, they played "Voodoo," "Gypsy Love Song," and a warm-up march called "Trombones Triumphant." At this concert the Arion Award was given to the most deserving senior member in the band. It is based on scholastic, attitude in band, ability, and willingness.

The band concluded the year by playing at the commencement exercises.

GIRLS CHORUS

The Girls' Chorus under the direction of Miss Joanne Wysocki got off to a running start this year by having more girls interested than it could accommodate. After the final cutting was done, the girls began work for their first appearance, which was at the annual open house. Their numbers for this program included, "At the Tea House," and "All the Things You Are."

After their fine showing at the open house, the girls began working toward the Winter Concert, which was held on December 18. Their selections for this concert were "O Come, O Come, Immanuel," "On a Morning Long Ago," and " 'Twas the Night Before Christmas." Judy Grunwald was the soloist for this number.

In the spring, their efforts turned to work for the spring festivals, concert, and solo and ensemble events. A double trio consisting of Susan Bruss, Jeanette Gauerke, Judy Wheaton, Pat Kolodzik, Joyce Brommelmeier, and Janice Landwehr was entered in the contest. A single trio featured Nancy Schmidt, Adele Christianson, and Judy Grunwald.

The Girls' Chorus ended a very successful year by appearing at the commencement exercises.

MIXED CHORUS

The Mixed Chorus made its first public appearance this year at the annual open house held in the fall. Their selections included: "The Galway Piper," and a novelty number.

The next thing to look forward to was the Winter Concert. After long hours of intense practice, they presented a fine program of Christmas music, including sacred numbers as well as some novelty numbers. All their numbers were enjoyed very much by the audience. Their songs included: "The Inn at Bethlehem," "Don't Wait 'Til the Night Before Christmas," "Gloria Patri," and "We Wish You a Merry Christmas."

The Mixed Chorus was also featured at the Spring Concert and the commencement exercises.

The Mixed Chorus meets two days a week, under the direction of Miss Joanne Wysocki.

Students who enjoy singing have an opportunity to make use of their talents in the Mixed Chorus.

Boys can be members of the Mixed Chorus when there is an off-season in sports.

W Club

The "W" Club is made up of letter winners from different sports. One purpose of the "W" Club is to talk over the problems that may arise in sports.

The "W" Club decorated a prize-winning float for the homecoming parade. The float had a tableau of the Denmark players joining the Foreign Legion after their defeat at Winneconne.

In the spring the Club holds a banquet for all members. Various awards are given out at this time. The Mueller-Stridde Award was presented to Dave McNamee for being the outstanding junior athlete. Gold footballs are handed out, bars; and awards in basketball, track, and baseball are also presented to the deserving.

The officers for this year were: Bruce Armstrong, President; Keith Halder, Vice-President; and Mildred Larson, Secretary-Treasurer.

Pep Club

The Pep Club was a new club this year, which held its organizational meeting on November 10. The main object of the club was to promote school spirit at various athletic events.

The club members assist the cheerleaders by helping them to organize pep meetings, backing them at games, and working up new cheers.

Different speakers were arranged by members of the club for every meeting.

A clever skit, "In the Barn," written by Nancy Schmid Margaret Korn and Beverly Broehm, spurred the team to victory over Freedom. Mary Welle amused the crowd with her interpretation of the farmer.

School banners with magenta lettering and a wolf's head on a white background were sold at the basketball tournament for money-making purposes.

The officers for this year were: Bill Hewitt, President; Keith Halder, Vice-President; Margaret Korn, Secretary; Mary Beth Morgan, Treasurer; and Jim Kuhr, Reporter.

The club was advised by Miss Charlotte Dottke.

A Cheerleaders

Goofie -
You alcoholic you. are you ever sober! Now don't forget I'm taking you up on that little deal. It will have to be soon O.K. You sure are a nut! Remember all the times you teased me about things that weren't true! Keep up the good work in sports! Don't drink all 3 wine bingos. I want some too! Be good this summer - possible! Lots of luck to a swell guy! Little Sniffin

With butterflies in their stomachs and still going over their cheers, the "A" team cheerleaders were chosen by Oshkosh State Cheerleaders at a baseball game last spring. After going through their cheers, the best four cheerleaders elected were: Mildred Larson, Beverly Broehm, Irene Quigley, and Judy Grunwald. They chered at all football and basketball games.

From the fourteen girls competing, it was difficult to choose the four best "B" team cheerleaders. Mrs. Betty Diamond and Mrs. Carol Plumber, both former cheerleaders in high school, picked Lona Anderson, Nancy Bork, Bonnie Larson, and Adele Christianson to lead the cheers.

The pep metings were under the direction of their adviser, Miss Charlotte Dottke. She helped plan and produce the pep meetings which were held every home game.

FOOTBALL

The unbeatable Wolves won the Little Nine Conference Championship, the seventh time out of the last nine years.

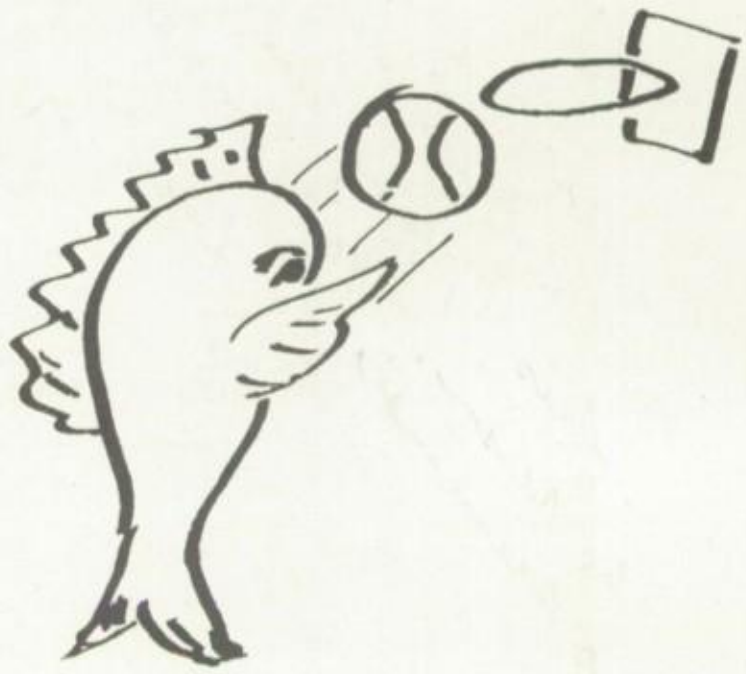
Through the excellent coaching of Mr. Harold Schmidt and Mr. James Carlson, the team followed and played through a successful season with six win and one tie.

The Wolves tied their first conference game with Wrightstown 6 to 6. They put on their spurs and wings and beat Reedsville 54 to 18. Three shut-outs in a row followed with Shicton, Denmark, and Hortonville, with scores 13 to 0, 16 to 0, 32 to 0, respectively. In the last conference game with Freedom, the team scored a 37 to 7 victory.

We played one non-conference game with Omro and won by a score of 47 to 0.

'B' Team

The "B" team started their basketball season with a fine crop of sophomores and freshmen. They had an overall record of 17 wins and 3 losses. The outlook for the future is bright, for we had seen some beautiful ball work from these players. The successful team was coached by Mr. James Diamond.



KNEELING—J. Mathison, E. Angell, C. Schueler, B. Schmude, and Dave Peterson.

L. to R.—D. McNamee, B. Parsons, G. Scovel, D. Ehlke, H. Johnson. Mr. Carlson, coach, G. Van Asten, B. Armstrong, T. Wicinsky, A. Opperman. Managers—L. Mueller, and D. Eisch.

BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS OF LITTLE NINE

After having a poor season last year, the wolves came back this year to grab the Little Nine basketball Championship with a 14-2 record.

It was a close race with Hortonville, and Denmark right behind. The only teams to beat the Wolves in conference, were Hortonville and Wrightstown, in a tense over-time contest.

Most of the first-string players were seniors. They include: Dave McNamee, Alvin Opperman, Dick Ehlke, Bruce Armstrong, Harold Johnson, Ted Wicinsky, and Gary Scovel.

Mr. James Carlson successfully coached the team to victory.

TRACK

The 1955 Winneconne High School track team was undefeated in eight meets. They won the Little Nine Conference Championship for the fourth year in succession, and the Sectional track meet for the second year in a row.

In the Little Nine meet at Lawerence College Merle Christian tied the conference record of C. Cornelius of Freedom, for 440-yard run in 55:8 seconds.

Gary Scovel set a new conference record in the 120-yard high hurdles in 16:25 seconds. He also broke the record in the 200-yard low hurdles, the time being in 25.05 seconds.

At the state meet on May 28, Gary Scovel placed second in the low hurdles for 4 points.

Mr. T. Emerson coached the team to their successful victories.

1955 Homecoming

"I crown you, Karen,

my Queen of the 1955 Homecoming."

An air of triumph reigned over the homecoming dance, as Winneconne celebrated their victory over Denmark.

To the strains of "Moments to Remember," played by the Ballad Aires, King Jim Kuhr and Queen Karen Friedrich led their court through the gaily decorated gym.

Members of the court of honor were: Gary Scovel and Judy Grunwald; Bill Parsons and Bev Borree; Glenn Michaels and Mary Ellen Disch; John Buser and Jackie Thiex; Chuck Radtke and Adele Christianson; Bryce Schmude and Lona Anderson; and Lester Angell and Marjorie Baugrud.

The Student Council sponsored the dance, and Loretta Kinsler, Student Council President, crowned Jim King. Jim then crowned Karen as the Queen of the 1955 Homecoming.

The gym was decorated with the school colors, magenta and white. A brightly decorated goal-post in the middle of the floor featured pictures of the football players.

The evening came to a close when King and Queen descended their royal thrones. The 1955 Homecoming had been truly "Moments to Remember."

Dancing to their theme song.

STAND UP STRAIGHT! There's a lot more ahead of you than there is on the ground.

Queen and King of Posture Day, Darlene Dorow and Ronnie Day

YEARBOOK HOUSE
KANSAS CITY 6, MISSOURI

Hi Marty
Remember all the fun weeds had this year. Carolyn really thought of a good
nickname for you tho
night
Loads of luck
Carol Mueller

Marty
really had been fun knowing you and being in sports with you. Good luck next year in school. Don't do anything
I wouldn't do. Take it easy on all of you girls. May God bless you and keep you always. Be good and good luck down state! I want to see you through it about 120 at or more!
Mack

"Foot"
Take it easy on the kids,
Beer, and women next year.
Don't forget the fun we had in American History class. Take it easy on the die. now.
Anton

Hi Marty,
Remember that crazy night you took me home from that dance.
I hope I didn't talk too
awfully much but you know I do love to talk.
I was hoping you wouldn't stick your "foot" in my mouth. Be good now
Luck always to a real swell guy
Carolyn '58"

Marty
I'd like to know
what this is all about
Why don't you tell me about such things. Remember all our walks to the store and take it easy this summer on the women and the drinks. Hope to see you this summer
Mekrin

Mr. Short Britches.
Sorry to interrupt your quiet and alcoholic?
Sal don't have a pair of the little rat.

Morty
Remember all those time how come out to miss blane and sad bad in singing song. I all the time now and then. Learn American Customs. Just tell → will show you how to get the birds out of the field, and I will see you. Then summer clam to mitys the rush, Take it easy on them Sunday night partys. Good Luck to the best of friends.
Glenn
